- Federal Board (FBISE): The pass rate was 80%, with 70,000 students appearing.

Paper Rechecking

For students who believe their answer sheets were not evaluated correctly, all educational boards offer a rechecking facility. This process ensures that all answers have been marked and totaled correctly.

Procedure:

1. Application: Students must apply for rechecking within 15 days of the result announcement.
2. Fee: A nominal fee is charged per subject, which varies across different boards.
3. Outcome: The rechecking results are usually declared within 20-30 days of the application.

Supplementary Exams

Supplementary exams provide a second chance for students who did not pass one or more subjects in the main exams. These exams are typically held a few months after the main result announcement.

Key Points:

- Application Deadline: Students need to apply within a specified period, usually 30 days after the main results are announced.
- Preparation Time: Students are given a few months to prepare for these exams.
- Fee Structure: Each board has its own fee structure for supplementary exams.

Result Cancellation

In certain cases, students may need to cancel their result due to various reasons such as dissatisfaction with their marks or opting for different subjects.

Process:

1. Application Submission: A formal application must be submitted to the board's office.
2. Fee: A cancellation fee is applicable.
3. Reappearing: Students can reappear in the next examination session.

Corrections in Result Card/Certificate

Errors in the result card or certificate can occur, and correcting them is crucial for future academic and career opportunities.

Steps for Correction:

1. Application: Submit an application along with a copy of the original result card.
2. Supporting Documents: Provide necessary documents such as birth certificate, previous educational records, etc.
3. Processing Time: Corrections are typically processed within 2-4 weeks.

Board Migration/NOC

Students wishing to transfer from one board to another need to obtain a No Objection Certificate (NOC).

Procedure:

1. Application: Submit an application for NOC to the current board.
2. Fee: A processing fee is required.
3. Documents: Provide all necessary documents including the previous board's result card, migration certificate, and a letter from the new board.

Conclusion

The 10th class result is a crucial juncture in a student's academic journey. Understanding the procedures for rechecking, supplementary exams, result cancellation, corrections, and board migration can help students navigate their educational paths more effectively.
